REPORTS FROM OFFICERS

Treasurer's Report. - Joan Pelletier reported we are still waiting for funds from Main Street Mile sponsors. It looks like we are down with a loss of $2800. The MSM will donate $2000. in scholarships, that makes us $800. down, but that doesn't include the funds we are waiting for from sponsors. We have over $90,000. in the check book. In December and January we'll have a lot of money going out. The marathon is doing pretty well dollar wise.

Vice President's Report - Bob Richards - No report.

Seagull Six - Mike Norton - No report.

Membership - Doris Beatty - No report.

Newsletter - Pete Landry - No report.

Main Street Mile - Dana Delorme - No Report.

Friday Night Five - Ken Gartner - No Report.

Special Events - Carolyn Bird - No Report.

Cape Cod Marathon - Courtney Bird said there are 1301 registered for the marathon and 192 for the relay. The time is counting down, the long term weather forecast looks good. (a more detailed report will be made at CCM Meeting after this meeting).

Coaching - Bob Richards reported for Jim Preisig the workouts have been going well. The turn out has been on the lighter side with about 5 to 8 people.

Old Business - None.

New Business - Jack Carroll mentioned that Ken Gartner asked him to bring up the dollar beers that are sold at the Falmouth Inn after the CCM. Jack said that Ken asked if we could serve coffee and soda at the CCM party. It was agreed that the dollar beers were fine and that it was a good idea to serve coffee and soda at the CCM party. Joan Pelletier asked Jack about the Youth program's financial breakdown.

Our next meeting will be held in December.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 7:18 PM.
